under

Investment in Argo-ecology Value Chain Project (IAVCP)

DATE OF RELEASE: 04/12/2023

Invitation Letter

Dear Madam/Sir,

Subject: Request for Proposal for Market and Value Chain Study in the focus states for potential commodities under Investments in Agroecology Value Chains Project (IAVCP)

Investments in Agroecology Value Chains Project (IAVCP) is an IFAD-funded programme that focuses on identifying viable business opportunities linked to agroecology clusters and value chains, providing investment support for integrated agroecology production systems, and offering grants to Micro and Small Enterprises (MSEs) and Producer Organization Enterprises (POE) working in agroecology value chains to support their business growth and expansion.

It aims to promote integrated sustainable production systems through grants, technical assistance and ecosystem support for MSEs and POEs. The objective is to improve their businesses, enhance their agroecological outcomes, and provide tangible benefits to small producers in the value chain. The following three aspects distinguish the IAVCP from traditional value chain investment programs and are critical for a project's suitability for investment.

ACCESS Development Services is managing a fund on behalf of International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD) for supporting enterprises working on Agro-ecology Value Chains under its Investment in Agro-ecology Value Chains Project (IAVCP).

About Investments in Agro-ecology Value Chains Project (IAVCP)

Investments in Agroecology Value Chains Project (IAVCP) is an IFAD-funded program that focuses on identifying viable business opportunities linked to agroecology clusters and value chains, providing investment support for integrated agroecology production systems, and offering grants to Micro and Small Enterprises (MSEs) and Producer Organization Enterprises (POE) working in agroecology value chains to support their business growth and expansion.

The objective of IAVCP is to enhance the income of small-scale agroecology producers and rural MSEs by facilitating market linkages and catalyzing investments in value addition and marketing of sustainable food products in local, regional, and national urban markets. It aims to promote integrated sustainable production systems through grants, technical assistance, and ecosystem support for MSEs and POEs. The objective is to improve their businesses, enhance their agroecological outcomes, and provide tangible benefits to small producers in the value chain. The following three aspects distinguish the IAVCP from traditional value chain investment programs and are critical for a project's suitability for investment.

Aspect # 2: Impact on Small Holder Farmers/Small & Marginal Producers

Aspect # 3: Sustainability & Financial Viability of the Business
